

Senate Republican Leadership & Appropriations Aide Lindsay Garcia Joins KDCR Partners

Washington, DC (March 31, 2025) – Kountoupes Denham Carr & Reid, a premier bipartisan government affairs firm, today announced that Lindsay Garcia has joined the firm as a principal. With more than 10 years as a senior Republican aide in the U.S. Senate, Garcia brings a wealth of legislative experience and knowledge to the firm.

“Lindsay Garcia has incredible experience navigating multiple reconciliation bills and appropriations cycles,” said Randi Reid, partner at KDCR Partners. “In this dynamic political landscape, we are thrilled to draw on her deep knowledge of conference dynamics when negotiating complex spending packages. Lindsay’s time around the leadership table, and years of expertise in appropriations and energy policy will greatly aid our clients on day one.”

Garcia most recently served as clerk of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Energy and Water Development, working directly with Senate Appropriations Chair Susan Collins (R-ME) and Subcommittee Chair John Kennedy (R-LA), where she drafted Energy and Water appropriations legislation, led bipartisan negotiations to advance the Subcommittee’s goals, and oversaw funding of the U.S. Department of Energy and related programs.

Prior to her work as a senior aide on the Senate Appropriations Committee, Garcia was the lead policy director for the Senate Republican Policy Committee, serving under former Chairman Roy Blunt (R-MO); a legislative director and chief counsel for Sen. Lamar Alexander (R-TN); and a director at a private consulting firm. Garcia is a native of Missouri, earned her bachelor’s degree from Vanderbilt University, and her J.D. from William & Mary School of Law.

Garcia joins KDCR as its clientele has grown to 60 clients, including Airbnb, Best Buy, Constellation Energy, CVS Health, Philips, Pinterest, TerraPower, and T-Mobile.
